

Time alone with God

Lord, I wonder if this New Year
I can find time to be with you?
Time alone, just me and You,
Doing what You would choose.
A time when I'm not distracted by the things I think I must do.
A time when I'm not in a rush
to hurry off and fix my life my own way.
A time when I'm not on a schedule,
To be religious—
Reading, praying and marking the box complete.
I wonder Lord, will I find the time
just to be with You?
Alone where no one walks by me,
To distract or see how I behave.
A time to cry and laugh,
To sing and praise.
A time to repent
with the gift of tears.
A time to surrender,
My will to Yours,
My life to You.
A time to remember your majesty.
To ponder how great you are.
A time to be patient and wait,
Till I hear from You.
A time to sense Your presence,
To feel You so very near.
A time to bow down and worship,
To worship only You.
I wonder Lord,
Will I draw nearer to you this year?
